Case Submission Format

All cases should incorporate the following components (the sections should not be subtitled with these generic headings):

- An opening paragraph/hook that generates interest and foreshadows the key problem.

- Company/organisation story or history

- Industry background as relevant

- Key characters should be fully developed.

- Complete description of the situation or problem

- Exhibits or appendices and references as relevant.

- Include a Teaching Note